PRICE TWO CENTS.

VOL. XXXIII—NO. 127.

WEATHER FACTS. Washiston, May W Ohlo: hreatening weather, light deal rains, except in Western nio, tair weather, slightly > SPRINGFIELD, O., May 30, 1887.

THE WOLF

SHEEP'S CLOTHING.

to visit their fold, obtained a suit of the most fashionable sheep's clothing and rang for of Major Ostrander's memorial address de waters of the Chickamanga, the plain faces The night will pass away, the evenings an admission one evening when a dance was going on. He pulled the wool over the serescort. He went to the cloak room and checked his all-wool female ulster, and with a comb ers of the great past so seidom recall our dotted thick with mangled, ghostly dead—duty, because they are few, we must draw closer to this beautiful memorial observto this beautiful memorial observto this divine harmony, four dotted thick with mangled, ghostly dead—spheres over the field of Appointation, and burial blent." All day long the tide of batunder the spell of the divine harmony, four and brush banged the wool on his forehead in the most approved style known to sheep.

On entering the ball room he attracted great attention.

"Who is she?" "What a charming young sheep!" etc.

We are heretoday that we may remember that we have the days great glory. We may forget the dropping flag of Sunter and the barroom the sunlight of Appointation. We may forget the dropping flag of Sunter and the barroom the barroom sheep." "What a charming young sheep!" etc.

It has ebbed and flowed across this reeking guilding the last eventide, the luster of our stars is dim, the red field lost. Night is drawing her that we are the inheritors of a great glory. We may forget the toils, the dangers, the deaths that brought peace to the war-torn lands and life to the dying nation; we remember that we heavy blood-stained years that roil between.

We are here today that we may remember and dripping with blood, wrecked but not young with blood, wrecked but not young with place of time that under the rate deventide, the luster of our stars is dim, the reventide, the luster of our stars is dim, the reventide the lost. Night is drawing her that eventide, the luster of our stars is dim, the reventide the lost. Night is drawing her that eventide, the luster of our stars is dim, the reventide the lost. Night is drawing her the eventide, the luster of our stars is dim, the red field lost. Night is drawing her the eventide, the luster of our stars is dim, the reventide, the luster of our stars is dim, the red field lost. Night is drawing her the eventide, the luster of our stars is dim, the red field lost. Night is drawing her the eventide, the luster of our stars is dim, the red field lost. Night is drawing her the eventide, the luster of our stars is dim, at eventide, the luster of our stars is dim, the red field lost. Night is drawing her the toils, the deaths that be the sound and the smoke of the tawney-leaved the toust of the and brush banged the wool on ance and strive to keep the memory always charming young sheep!" etc. were the remarks heard on dead championed the right and charged for freedom and for man, until over the story the undying laster of Shiloh and Perry-type of the American Nanbook, emblent of the undying laster of Shiloh and Perry-type of the American Nanbook, emblent of the undying laster of Shiloh and Perry-type of the American Nanbook, emblent of the undying laster of Shiloh and Perry-type of the American Nanbook, emblent of the undying laster of Shiloh and Perry-type of the American Nanbook of the last of the undying laster of Shiloh and Perry-type of the American Nanbook of the last o bucks, as well as many of the bucks, as well as many of the leart's blood of the nation's bravest and best, we read well the lesson that borders been, but felt in the dread oppression of and best, we read well the lesson that borders been, but felt in the dread oppression of the nation's sacrifice. No shock of the nation's sacrifice. old ones, vied with each other old ones, vied with each other

All history is manhood's protest against the accumulated wrongs written in letters of blood across the continents on a thousand battle-fields. The generations have ing. closing in on their routed prey. On patriotism was transfused in rivers from nating stranger. They all agreed that she was just "killall earth a place and all time a season.
Nor have the great defenders of the faith
Nor have the great defenders of the faith lived and she was, for when a lived and died in vain. Their march is

The life of the nation is trembling on the penetrates the depths of the centuries and in the sould in the add in the read of the hand. tender young lamb asked the disguised wolfto waltz, he just

The material is the cannot in the condensation of the cause for which our brave men died.

The boundaries of the cause for which our brave men died.

Where the hills come down to the valley between the victors and the valley and over every land wherever the from the time-staned canvass rides out the sunlight falls, the radiant banner of freedisguised wolf to waltz, he just waltzed in and devoured her in two shakes of a lamb's tail, in two shakes of a lamb's tail, in the obstitution of the battle-fields, stands tiptoe on the full dawning of the mountain tops in the full dawning on master that perfect day when owning no master that perfect day when owning no master the full dawning of the particular their chief. The first case and the victors and the vanquasment, and the vanquasment of the from the time-stained canvass rides out the sounlight falls, the radiant banner of free dom—its field now blazoned with unnumber of the form the time-stained canvass rides out the sounlight falls, the radiant banner of free dom—its field now blazoned with unnumber of the form the time-stained canvass rides out the sounlight falls, the radiant banner of free dom—its field now blazoned with unnumber of the form the time-stained canvass rides out the sounlight falls, the radiant banner of free dom—its field now blazoned with unnumber of the subject adopted for this hour's thought.

Almost with the beginning of colonial life on the eastern shores of our country. African slavery was introduced as a domestic institution, and did not cease from the time-stained canvass rides out the sunlight falls, the radiant banner of free dom—its field now blazoned with unnumber of the subject adopted for this hour's thought.

Almost with the beginning of colonial life on the eastern shores of our country. African slavery was introduced as a domestic institution, and did not cease from the time-stained canvass rides out the sunlight falls, the radiant banner of free dom—its field now blazoned with unnumber and the close of this hour's thought.

Almost with the beginning of colonial life on the eastern shores of our country. African slavery was introduced as a domestic institution, and did not cease from the time-stained canvass rides out the sunlight falls, the radiant banner of free dom—its field now blazoned with unnumber of the sunling to the sunling the sunling the part of the dar

the advantage of buying cloth-sheep stood helplessly by, waiting their turn for refresh-

THE WHEN. 25 and 27 West Main Street.

double the amount they were 6 months ago; Javas have advanced but very little. We equal and exact justice to all mankind.

But at what a cost. Under the southern sums, the men we mourn today grown to the statures of heroes, gave life itself. In the blood-stained thickets of Virginia, on the blood-stained thickets of Virginia can sell you the best Old Government Java, roasted, for 30 cents a pound; the best Golden Rio for 28c per pound; also, good for 25c and 23c.

the banks of the Cumberland, by the waters of the Mississippi for the Tennessee, where the Mississippi rolls its hanglity tide "by mound and stream and sea," they wrapped their colors round their breasts and died as brave men die. They went down one by one on the weary march, in the bivouse or the camp, in the lingering torture of the hospital, or the horrors of the prison pen, on the lonely picket, in the skirmish that was deadly, or surrounded by all of war's "magnificently and stream of the grident share under they with a vell born of the wail of the damned, burn their advance in a hissing sheet of fire up the hills to the blue lines. Those quiet hill tops burst into flame, voltances now and in eruption. Those significantly picket, in the skirmish that was deadly, or surrounded by all of war's "magnificently and stream of their breasts and died as brave men die.

They went down one by one on the weary march, burn their advance in a hissing sheet of fire up the hills to the blue lines. Those quiet hill tops burst into flame, voltances now and in eruption. Those significantly picket, in the skirming the circumstance in the depths of the unitary legions spring from the depths of discord, the gray legions spring from the depths of the unitar

TEAS

Have not advanced. We are selling the best value Young Hyson and Black in this market at 50c per pound.

J. M. NIUFFER.

MEMORIAL ADDRESS

Delivered by Major James S. Ostrander at Ferncliff Cemetery This Mon-

Glorious and Glowing Tribute to the ture of a Battle Scene-Our Lowly Heroca.

Major James S. Ostrander, the orator of in the city Saturday evening and became and gold, the mellow haze of late Septem he guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Christie, of south Market street, Mr. Christie and his distinguished guest are old

Saturday evening a small informal company was given at the Christie residence to neet Major Ostrander and his wife. The evening was very pleasantly passed. Major A wolf, tired of waiting for Ostrander is a quiet, unassuming gentleman of 46 years, but looking much younger. an invitation from the sheep His face is kindly, and there is a twinkle to His face is kindly, and there is a twinkle to his eye betokening a good fellowship that few can or care to resist. He is a brother-chair is forever vacant, a loved voice silent.

Appended is an almost verbatim abstract

We are heretoday that we may remember and dripping with blood, wrecked but not in the presence of new times and new men, recreant, sublime in its sacrifice even under scales, standing in heroic grandent at the recall the velorous days when our gallant the shadow of disaster. Through the portals of the temple as if to guard the sathe chasm of the years.

All history is manhood's protest against to

One thousand seven hundred and seventy-five on the dial of time, a handful of men day, march with dauntless tread the truest took the sword of outraged justice against an empire the drom-beat of whose armies life for liberty. It is Thomas, the invincicited the earth with sound. Seven pon-ble and the forlorn hope of Chickamauga, derous years the David of freedom went up against the Goliath of tyranny. At length out of the furnace of battle came a new people, purified by fire, ennobled by conflict, shows them the way to death. Here, there, > great republic rent asunder, treason in its resting on right, or left, against counsels and anarchy noting among its the fastness of the mountain, counsels and anarchy rooting among its the fastness of the mountain, statutes. The charter of the fathers rotting away with rust and the spirit of the muskets come to the ground locked in the dark ages revisiting the light of day in the iron grasp of mighty purpose, the busy civilization of the nineteenth century. They stood face to face with a new empire, whose setting sun light, as it sifts down through corner-stone was cemented in slavery and the trees above them, the line of rigid veined with blood that trickled down from veterans seems melted into the landscape suppressed Steady row, men. that runs of nations, weeping over the ashes of "the lest cause." Why, they never had any cause! But possessed of the devil's miscrale, they turned their backs to the sun of man. Has driven Rio Coffees to Coffees to the darkness of their own shadows. Liberthand the darkness of the darkness surrounded by all of war's "magnificently a to-ling, striving ministers of death, stern array," the serried lines, the roar of musketry, the screaming shot, the bursting gores and lashes the hillsides. On right, shell, the charging columns, they fell by on left, above, below, death wakes the thousands in the holocaust of battle. But

and year by year the brave, the true, the grave, and year by year the brave, the true, the great hearted, their life work the fate of surprise and dying where they ended, lie down to the bivousc stand.

Of the dead, Hecalling the Call up your reserves, great soldier by somebody familiar with the premises.

flag of the free hearts, hope and home, whose stripes and stars they exalted through the smoke of battle to the foremost place of Turning the leaves of battle memories, Rising majestically against the line is the towering form of Mission Ridge, its eastern slope kissed by the morning sun-light of centuries, rich with the luxuriance of the primeval forests, its massive crest away to the southward until lost in the dim distance. Unbroken in the grandeur of its the air.

eye can see, and beyond, to the sluggish Night and immortality are on the picture

tle has ebbed and flowed across this recking impending evil the flushed victors swoop tattered flag is furled, the to their quarry, their ranks conflict still, the great wor one by the world's clock! The hour and into line along the crests of the foot-hills, the men had met together. They found the bending to the sweep of the landscape and iron grasp of mighty purpose, the busy hum of preparation dies away, and in the the lash of the taskwaster. The world and a part of the eternal hills.

Standing now by the side of the waiting the thunder of guns was still then came guns and looking eastward, there comes up from the battle-swept plain a sound like The land was a sepulchre of heroic dead, the first mutterings of the tempest, gathbut in all its broad expanse there remained ering tury in its sweep and swelling into not a spot pressed by the chained foot of a the roar of the tornado blast. Nearer and slave. Low in the dissolution of retribu- nearer in its madness. No need for the tion vanished rebellion sat, like the Niobe suppressed "Steady now, men." that runs whenever the summons came, their great deeds aver their lasting monuments, honor is in their train and glory covers them as ward, upward through the blinding storm with a garment.

A quarter of a century separates us from their great days. The mail-clad legions the guns, decimated in the tempest of leadther great cays. The man-cal legions the guils, declinated in the tempest of least are only a memory, the battered armors in must be a some property of the great cays. The man-cal legions the guils, declinated in the tempest of least armors in the lempest of least armors in least armors in the lempest of least armors in least armors in the lempest of least armors in the lempest of least armors in least armors in the lempest of least armors in least armo to man, shall we, can we, doze we forget battalions. Corsican scoffer, it is a lie the love we owe the dead, ignore the price-less debt we owe the living? How faithfully the few are holding dominion over the they wrought; how grandly they achieved? many. Standing to their guns under the Answer, fifty millions of freedmen made one people by their victories. Answer, death with deaths, Steady four millions of redeemed bondsmen, whose shackles fell asunder under the blows of and, dying, are unshaken. Out of amuni shackies fell asunder under the blows of their iron legions. Answer majestic con-tion, they borrow from the dead. They dy federation of states wielded into nationality in the fires that flashed along their lines. They swing their muskets like flails an from the Mississippi to the sea. Answer, beat out the harvest of death. They re member the Titans and the mountain becomes their magazine, the rocks their de fenders. The knell of death tolls on, the there comes the picture of an autumn day of a thousand homes. Warm hearts stan Iemorial day, of Richmond, Ind., accom-ompanied by his charming wife, arrived Over all the landscape lies the mingled green great heart of the nation still beats on. Ther omes a moment when the bell of door hangs pulseless in its swing, the attack, the defense, grim ministers of dissolution, are blended into one. From side to side over the lighting giants fate turns over the fighting giants fate turns irresolute, and while the issue trembles or crowned with God's first temple, stretching away to the southward until lost in the dim ments, "horsed on the sightless couriers of "horsed on the sightless couriers o Victory has come. Baptized in line save where at Rossville youder it dips to the plain, throwing wide the gateway line stands alone. Above the roar of ca line stands alone. Above the roar of carthrough which in the old times the nage and the thundering guns ring out the Cherokee warrior sallied from his glad notes of an honest cheer, Our flag is

SPRINGFIELD, O., MONDAY, EVENING, MAY 30, 1887.

The broken waves roll back their blend huris its detiance into the empty darknes in-law of Judge Charles R. White, of this thrown around its portal by the Titans of and on the recking hill tops the breath-city.

Appended is an almost verbatim abstract eternal guard, from their base as far as the iivered at Ferneliff cemetery this (Monday) afternoon:
In some hour, death comes to the fireside of each of us and at the family altar. A waters of the Unickamanga, the pain taces the mornings of the changing years will rust of clearing and the rude cabins that are so and fall, the dead, the dying and the living essentially a feature of the agonizing siavthe the property of the cannon and the country this is, because they were.

As the years go by and the living reminding and river side, the frightened solitude is many close.

As the years go by and the living reminding the cannon and the cannon millions of shackles fell asunder, and the > Yonder where justice holds her even scales, standing in heroic grandear at the ville and Stone River and in the gloom of the nation's sacrifice. No shock of battle come and gone and the holy cause of liberty, "bequeathed from bleeding sire to triumph—on towards the mountain pass, the nation over the half million graves on and then on and on, turning back the index whose sacred mounds the flower of liberty ment and grand larceny, failed of arriving of the states as anticipated, but in the One thousand eight hundred and sixtyas the dead around them the ranks gilde charged.

They were then discharged, Judge White thanking them, as usual, for their efforts etc. The jury had stood ten for acquittal and two for conviction from the first ballot. The two sticklers were Seth V. Black and

When the jury came down, the court-room contained the counsel for both sides, the defendant and many spectators. The announcement that two jurors announcement that tw stuck the ten was by the strongly partisan crowd with some thing almost resembling indignation. The defendant cried a little. All of the ten acquitting jurors warmly shook hands with Juror Funderburg offered to go on her

It is probable that this second disagree ment will settle the case, and that it will not again be brought up for trial. This is at the option of the prosecutor. Amos Whiteley is quoted as saying he will keep on until he gets a verdict. It would be economy for the county if Mr. Whiteley would modify his plans. The defendant $1,000, with George Spence, esq., as se-

Magnificent Judge Blandin, lawyer and gentleman, leaves at 4 o'clock for his home in Cleveland. The defendant goes at once to Spring City, Tenn.
Here is a document that the State attempted to introduce a telegram: F. B. Joyes, Springfield, Ohlo: Chickens sick. Come at once. Heads swelling. You can see. Answer.

Just D. Cannon.

THEY WHERE HUNGRY.

Burglars Break Into Mr. Albert Tuttle's Residence And Steal All The Eatibles. On Saturday night Mr. Albert Tuttle's residence. No. 411 South Limestone street, strictly pure and unadulterated groceries,

The young heroes that in the flush of manhood brought victory and union on their colors have fallen into the sear and yellow leaf and passed quietly down to join the great majority or dot the millions of our silent cities in graves too early grown. Year by year the muffled drums are beating funeral marches to the grave, and all the time the work of death goes and so will be a sort of gala day for school children and there is fire and shot and saber stroke as the ocean in their colors have fallen into the sear and yellow leaf and passed quietly down to join the great majority or dot the millions of our silent cities in graves too early grown. Year by year the muffled drums are beating funeral marches to the grave, and all the time the work of death goes and breaks in fire against the galiant lines, stunning the people, etc. Lines so arranged as to enable the government to concentrate men and supplies most rapidly from all of the loyal the family's Sunday supplies. They took of the family's Sunday supplies. They took of the family's Sunday supplies most rapidly from all of the loyal the family's Sunday supplies. They took of the family's Sunday supplies most rapidly from all of the loyal will be held on to children and there is the and supplies most rapidly from all of the government to concentrate men and supplies most rapidly from all of the government to concentrate men and supplies most rapidly from all of the government to concentrate men and supplies most rapidly from all of the government to concentrate men and supplies most rapidly from all of the government to concentrate men and supplies most rapidly from all of the government to concentrate men and supplies most rapidly from all of the government to concentrate men and supplies most rapidly from all of the government to concentrate men and supplies most rapidly from all of the government to concentrate men and supplies most rapidly from all of the government to concentrate men and supplies most rapidly from fire and shot and saler stroke as the ocean in pantry window by prying open the shutter

MANTLED WITH FLOWERS.

Memorial Day and How it is Being Celebrated in the Patriotic City of Veterans, Yesterday, by Dr. Run van The City Attame With Flags and Decorations.

f time, Springfield, in common with a remited nation, is called upon to celebrate the country's one, greatest, most significant holiday Memorial day. The flags and bunting, and presents a gain appearance—the calm gavety of peace. The day dawned beautifully clear and fair, but clouds sprang up this morning, and at insettled, and there have been slight rains, It is hoped, however, that the weather will ot prove unfavorable.

The exercises at Ferneliff this afternoon shed will be carried out.

The address of Major James S. Ostrander the orator of the day is published elsewhere in this paper. The line of march heretoneed will be observed by the pro-

Mitchell pots, No. 45, G. A., and the Sons was as follows:

war for the suppression of the slaveholders shot and shell: but, thank God, you are good one for the price. Then at 50c we recognized, but the way to extirpate it did not appear: the name was carefully kept opportunity of expressing our grateful reanything in the market for wear, and yet is through the unconstrained action of the care eral states it would gradually disappear.

This desirable result was reached in part army.

Your names may never appear on the care of fame; the old muster rolls south of Mason's and Dixon's line, where allowed by Judge White to come down.

The foreman Wm. Berger reported that they had been unable to agree upon a verdict and that there was no prospect of any.

They were then discharged, Judge White the passage of "The Fugitive Slave" slavery start of the passage of "The Fugitive Slave" becoming ceremonies strew their graves we may push aside the curtain and view firmly fixed on high, and will be the the unfolding providences of God, which we are to consider on this occasion. Seen. [In this study it will appear that

Seen. In this study it will appear that God's providences operated on many lines.

1. In the organization and wielding of influences calculated to lead the nation to do justice and judgment, by emancipating the shaves of the south and thereby avert.

The flash of every gun fired by a Union do instice and indement, by emancipating the slaves of the south, and thereby averting God's judgments on the nation. These influences appeared in many was required to enter into a new bond of $1,000, with George Spence, esq. as set of the two sections, north and south, showing the blessing of free labor and the merely the glory of these leaders, but the blight of slave labor. Difference in the development of ed whole Union army.

ucation north and south. Ignorance of the slave indispensable to his continuance in bondage. "Poor white trash."

3. Warnings of the church—"Uncle Tom's Cabin"—Helper's Book.

The Board of Agriculture Adopts Two New and Good Ideas. It would seem that all moral suasion was exhausted. Nothing more could the done. The despairing cry from the poor, crushed and helpless slave had ent. The board approved and accepted shall burst these fetters. II. Preparing the nation for the awful onflict. [God's providence laid the foundation for and organized victory for the 1. Invention of tailor-saving machines, respers, mowers, sewing and knitting machines—all northern inventions.

2. Building railroads. But little paying day of the fair, is designed by the board to day of the fair, is designed by the board to rebellion. Bread riots staring Europe in the face. Did not dare to move, etc. 2. Divisions and confusions which ob-tained in foreign courts when Napoleon proposed an armistice for six months, and a armstore for six mounts, and a convention at Havanna.

3. Threatening aspects of the relations between France and Russia, France and Mexico, also between England, Russia and Japan. God girded the globe with influences o protect us, etc.

IV. As seen in the war.
The fiat had gone forth: slavery or the republic must go down. We clung to the peculiar institution, etc.

[] Lincoln's first inaugural. Apprehension eems to exist among the people of the outhern states, that by accession to power of a republican administration their prop-ety and their personal safety are to be en-There never has been any reasonab cause for such apprehension.

Indeed, the most ample evidence to the contrary has all the while existed, and been open to their inspection.

It is found in nearly all the published clouds sprang up this morning, and at this writing. 10 a.m., the weather is very do but quote from one of these speeches unsettled, and there have been slight rains. rectly or indirectly, to interfere with the instation of slavery in the states where it

I believe I have no lawful right to do so will be attended by great crowds, if the and I have no inclination to do so."
weather be pleasant. Mayor Kelly will Fortunes of war varied; we seemed to weather be pleasant. Mayor Kelly will Fortunes of war varied; we seemed to make no decisive progress toward the final victory.

The crisis came in the summer of 1863

now exists.

July 4. Battle of Gettysburg in progress.
Lincoln's prayer in his chamber for victory—his covenant to emancipate the slaves.
News of victory. Surrender of Vicksburg.
Thence onward to Appointation. Mr. Lin-vant's eyes so completely that vant's eyes so completely that be was admitted without question, although he was without the matter of the matt by the bondsman's 250 years of unrequited toil shall be sunk and every drop of blood other drawn with the sword, as was said 3,000 years ago, so still it must be said that the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether."

Providence of God as seen in the late great things. They are the gracious gifts of the suppression of the slaveholders with us in singer for our sine, bath never-For the nation and kingdom that will not theless remembered mercy."

[In his last public address, delivered to eerning Him and His kingdom: "The government shall be upon His shoulders: . . . of the increase of His government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and justice from henceforth even forever."

This divine kingdom has to do with men. It seeks to control them by the power of truth and adequate motives, and will have final settlement with each individual of the recognition of manhood, making every that settlement with each individual of the recognition of manhood, making every man alike free before the law. It saved the linds kingdom also has to do with all national descriptions of the linds and of permetawith them God settles accounts in this ating republican institutions to bless gen. One Price (and it seems to erations yet unborn.

I see before me some of the men who disobedient. He gives them prosperity:
disobedient, He clastices them; when they resist him until the cup of their iniquity is full—he destroys them.

Soldiers:—More than 300,000 of your this hour's thought.

Almost with the beginning of colonial life's vital forces have been impaired by not cheaper than any of you, if not all, life's vital forces have been impaired by not cheaper than any beginning goods as cheap if hardships ice and suffering had passed.

In the organization of the Republic the hewn with saber, or torn and lacerated with that it could be sold at a quarter:

south, where the peculiar institution remained, it grew in strength and arrogance, at last will fade and perish, but your deep The jury in the present case sent down word at noon. Sunday that they could not south of Mason's and Dixon's line, where denying toil, suffering and valor, your self-south of Mason's and Dixon's line, where by the passage of "The Fugitive Stave becoming ceremonies strew their graves Law" by congress, and Judge Taney, of with floral mementoes. They tell me also the supreme court of the United States, gained for himself an immortality of infamy by the "Dread Scott decision," etc.

Thus when the general government wielding the state of the Golden Gate with their fragrance, were woven into Thus when the general government with edits power to rivet more firmly the fetters the bondmen, making every freeman of the north liable to be called out to hunt down north liable to be called out to hunt down. How touching! How appropriate and uil.

These introductory words bring us where

The name of Grant, the nation's hero, is through all coming time soldier, and the light that flan every saber weilded in defense of the Union have concentrated their burning rays Difference in growth, improvement from the calm brow of Grant, as the cen tral sun, and other chieftains, around him like stars, shines today concentrated and undying fame of

On Saturday afternoon the board of ag enetrated to the divine ear, and the awful the revised premium list which had been The red hand of war prepared by Secretary Sprague. It was dering should be paid as soon as the fair closed, thus insuring to all who entered horses for the races full payment of all purses. This decision of the board will of the dead. Recalling the grandeur of their mighty doings, remembering their service to God, to country and say, fights on the side of the strongest.

In saving us from foreign interven- Laura, daughter of Commissioner W. H. ended, lie down to the bivouse stand.

the family that the burgary was committed by somebody familiar with the premises, and the police are certain that it was not ling at the time of the breaking out of the ling at the time of the breaking out of the ling at the time of the breaking out of the ling at the time of the breaking out of the ling at the time of the breaking out of the ling at the line of the breaking out of the ling at the line of the breaking out of the line at the line of the breaking out of the line at the line of the breaking out of the line at the line of the breaking out of the line at the line of the breaking out of the line at the line of the breaking out of the line at the line of the breaking out of the line at the line of the breaking out of the line at the line of the breaking out of the line at the line of the breaking out of the line at the line of the breaking out of the line at the line of the breaking out of the line at the line at the line of the breaking out of the line at the line a

BARCAIN

WASH DRESS GOODS.

Real Scotch Crepetines

In exceedingly beautiful styles and fast colors, just opened: former price of these beautiful goods was 50c and 60c

MURPHY & BRO

N. B.—We will receive during the com-N. B. — we will receive united of Helvetia ing week another large invoice of Helvetia Silk Umbrellas, with Gold Handles, price, 92, 83.25, 82.50. They are THE bargain of the seas

34 and 36 South Limestone St.

Our dictionary says that the vord "advertise," means to inform. In reading some recent advertisements, one is almost tempted to doubt Webforest, broken here and here by accessing and the rude cabins that are so essentially a feature of the agonizing slavery days. Before the white man came to possess the land, the missionaries looking out from the mountain top over this peace out from the mountain top over this peace full valley have told the children of nature fustes in ages yet to be.

The daring deeds done on those description in the great struggle.

We live in deeds, not years. Who strikes of Veterans turned out in large numbers to coin constantly recognized the name of the the great struggle.

In As chastening us for our sins. His last inaugural. "Fondly do we hope, fervently do we pray that this mighty securge to fix appended in full, as delivered. The church was beautifully and appropriately down and appropriately down and appropriately down and appropriately will stat it continue until the wealth piled it as though it ought to mean the bondsman's 150 years of unrequited to make the children of the ladies look at the bondsman's 250 years of unrequited the memorial services at the Central in the great struggle.

In the gre to misinform, we cannot won-

For instance, if we see a business house advertising 2. As giving us the victory. Near the close: "No human council hath devised, nor hath any mortal hand worked out these For the nation and kingdom that will not serve these shall perish, yea, those nations shall be utterly wasted.—Isaiah is: 12.

Daniel declared prophetically (Dan. ii: 44). "In the days of these kings the tool of heaven shall set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed... it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand forever." (Kingdoms referred to, viz: those symbolized by the great image—Babyfonish, Medo-Persian, Macedonian, Roman.)

The tread of the magnificent armies and the standing as he unconsciously was in the very shadows of death, reverentially said to the people: "In the midst of your joyous expressions, He from whom all bless treferred to, viz: those symbolized by the great image—Babyfonish, Medo-Persian, Macedonian, Roman.)

The tread of the magnificent armies and line in the public address, delivered to a nimmense crowd assembled on the grounds of the White House, April 11, to congratuate haps not as much, the only information we get from that advertisement is that some-body's conscience has gone to sleep.

The tread of the magnificent armies and line is a public address, delivered to a nimmense crowd assembled on the grounds of the White House, April 11, to congratuate haps not as much, the only information we get from that advertisement is that some-body's conscience has gone to sleep.

The tread of the magnificent armies and line is a public address, delivered to a nimmense crowd assembled on the grounds of the White House, April 11, to congratuate the properties of the white House, April 11, to congratuate the properties of the whole advertisement is that some-body in the public address, delivered to a nimmense crowd assembled on the grounds of the White House, April 11, to congratuate the public address, delivered to a nimmense crowd assembled on the grounds of the White House, April 11, to congratuate the public address, delivered to a nimmense crowd assembled on the grounds of the White House, April 11, to congratuate the public address, delivered to a nimm are not worth one cent more Springfield that we are here to sell them Dry Goods, etc., at the very lowest living price, and if we cannot sell as low as any house in the city we will gladly close up shop. We have a way of doing business One Price, (and it seems to suit the people pretty well, they resist him until the cup of their angular to them.

Soldiers.—More than 300,000 of your the price does not suit you, we want you a central sun, and with the illumination it gives investigate the subject adopted for the boys mustered out at the close of the war. We mark all goods in plain figures, and red by not cheaper than any house in the cast.

of are offering this week bargains in Ladies' while Ganze Underwar, at Joe: this is a garment been which was never made until this year, so THE JURY AGAIN DISAGREES.

A Second Failure to Convict Jessie D. Carrecognized, but the way to extirpate it did not appear: the name was carefully kept out of the constitution, and it was ardently hoped by the founders of the Republic that through the unconstrained action of the seventh out of the constitution of the patriotic devotion to, and the brave defence of, our common country by both the dead and light. In Men's Uncommon country by both the dead and light in anything in the exceedingly fine and light. In Men's Uncommon country by both the dead and light in anything in the exceedingly fine and light. In Men's Uncommon country by both the dead and light in Balbriggan goods at 50c; also Jean Drawers—tailor-made goods—finished in Drawers tailor-made goods finished in the best possible way at 45c a pair. New Goods in Children's Hosiery, Fast Black, French Ribbed, at 20c and 22c a pair; all

New arrival of Scotch and French Ging Our Wash Goods Department is simply booming these fine days; come in and see what an elegant line we are showing in all qualities, from the lowest to the finest

-AT-

HONEST PRICES.

NO BAITING

NOR SCHEMING AT

ONE PRICE

CLOTHING HOUSE.

10 BLACK'S OPERA HOUSE.